

Curious about what a City Agent does, the benefits of it and how to become one?

Here is a small introduction to it:

Agents are in the center of the wheel, as a City Agent you will get to meet great people and establish a business relationship with them. This leads not only to creating your own deals and managing your profit, as it gives you the opportunity to create a very broad and interesting business network. Our innovative approach will help you lead your way on the road to success

The goal of our company is to facilitate an amazing, top rated, service in a way on which all parties involved can benefit from it.

What's the Agent's profile?

Tourism enthusiast. You love your city and you want to share what is best about it with its visitors.

Team Player. Your outstanding social skills are key to success.

Leadership. You have a proactive attitude; you take the opportunity and make the best of it.

What is expected of you?

- Define a road map for introducing MTS into the local market.
- Contact and contract business collaborators (suppliers and distributors).
- Track and monitor results.
- Supply the office with full business reports.
- Have a critical eye, spot areas that need adjustments and create solutions.

What are the requirements?

- Minimum 4 years of experience in sales.
- Excellent communication skills.
- Experience with CMS and CRM.
- High proficiency in spoken and written English.
- Experience in the local tourism industry.